The Michelangelo series

A bright, elegant living room with a large, ornate chandelier hanging from the ceiling. The room features a white tufted sofa, a white armchair, and a dark wood piano. Large windows with light-colored curtains allow natural light to fill the space. A tall, thin floor lamp stands near the sofa, and a small table holds a television and other items. The room is decorated with a mix of classic and modern elements, including a white arched doorway leading to another room.
